

We were visited this week by the Installer and Architect to view the Column Cover Mock-up for San Francisco International Airport. The columns utilize the Turn-Key Tab & Slot Wall System, allowing for ease of installation and labor savings in the field. The design is extraordinary! Please share the photos with your architectural / interior design / contractor network.

Lower Portion of the Column Cover

Perforation Pattern

Upper Portion of the Column Cover

